

Readings Course in Confessional Theology from within the Evangelical and Reformed Tradition
Final Draft
P. Graham Jr.

they have a zeal for God but not according to knowledge.
Romans 10:2

It is not so much that evangelicals cease to believe anything theological, it is rather that belief is no longer central to their identity and program!
Richard Lints, Fabric of Theology

Course Description:

In preparation for parish ministry within the Evangelical and Reformed tradition, the student will read and discuss with the instructor(s) the Westminster Confession of Faith, assigned selection from John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion and approximately 1,000 pages of select readings, both historical and contemporary, that engage the confessional context of the Westminster Confession of Faith.

Requirements:

- 1) The student will review and discuss with professor the assigned study guides that reflect upon the Westminster Tradition within a confessional context of the local church.
- 2) The student will be required to turn in an annotated bibliography of all assigned readings by the end of the semester.
- 2) The student will prepare a 15 page confessional (as distinguished from academic/research) paper on a relevant topic in Reformed Theology as approved by the Instructor. This project is intended to explore a topic in order to inform a students "confession" as relevant to parish ministry.
